Quite coincidentally I called the following commentary the "CAIRO Project" having no prior knowledge of the information contained in the following Rumble video link.

ARC to CAIRO (btw, what does Cairo mean?)

“Cairo is known in Arabic as Al-Qāhirah, meaning “The Victorious.”

“Its official name al-Qāhirah (القاهرة) means 'the Vanquisher' or 'the Conqueror', supposedly due to the fact that the planet Mars, an-Najm al-Qāhir (النجم القاهر, 'the Conquering Star'), was rising at the time when the city was founded,^[19] possibly also in reference to the much awaited arrival of the Fatimid Caliph Al-Mu'izz who reached Cairo in 973 from Mahdia, the old Fatimid capital. The location of the ancient city of Heliopolis is the suburb of Ain Shams (Arabic: عين شمس, 'Eye of the Sun').”

“There are a few Coptic names of the city. Tikešrōmi (Coptic: Ⲧⲕⲉⲥⲣⲱⲙⲓ Late Coptic: [\[di.kɑf' ro.mi\]](#)) is attested in the 1211 text The Martyrdom of John of Phanijoit and is either a calque meaning 'man breaker' (Ⲧ-, 'the', ⲕⲁⲱ-, 'to break', and ⲣⲱⲙⲓ, 'man'), akin to Arabic al-Qāhirah, or a derivation from Arabic قَصْرُ الرُّومِ (qaṣr ar-rūm, "the Roman castle"), another name of Babylon Fortress in Old Cairo.”

“The name Cairo is primarily a gender-neutral name of Arabic origin that means Victorious One.”

President Roosevelt gave a press conference in New York vowing he would do everything possible "to keep us out of war." And later had prior knowledge of the attack on Pearl Harbor and did not act to protect the lives of those who perished in that attack.

November 22, 1963 (Friday) $(1+1+2+2+1+9+6+3=(7))$

President John F. Kennedy was assassinated and the complete investigation files have yet to be released to the public after nearly sixty years since that tragedy.

Infinite Ouroboros Symbology

Ouroboros Symbol with Tetrahedrons

"They" weren't and aren't, worried about REAPERcussions because all of this is a holographic type of simulation construct or VR.

Let's review some of Holy Wood's (aka a forest of trees that children & adults get lost in, not ever to be heard from again) movies of the past that they have programmed the future with. So that we continue repeating slightly different past events, thinking we are making progress into the future. Does it not seem that history repeats quite often? And we are told over and over that if we don't learn from history then the lessons (history) continue to repeat. Such a convenient saying isn't it? It makes the repeating of events with slight differences seem to be normal, doesn't it? And it conditions us humans to "believe" and feel that we are always failing as a species, we don't ever progress or evolve and that humans aren't worthy.

A false paradigm that humanity has been conditioned and programmed to believe and except. Could all of us be victims of "FDIA"? Images courtesy of Clif.

IF FDIA were to be seen in someone who had power, say a local elected official, what may be the consequences of that situation?

If a local elected official were suspected of engaging in factitious disorder imposed on another (FDIA), it would be a serious concern as this type of behavior would be considered a form of child abuse.

If allegations of FDIA were to arise against an elected official, it could lead to an investigation by child protective services and/or law enforcement agencies. The official may be required to undergo psychological evaluations and potentially face criminal charges if the abuse is substantiated.

If the official is found guilty of FDIA, they may face severe legal consequences, including fines, imprisonment, or loss of their position. Furthermore, their reputation may be severely damaged, and they may face public scrutiny and social ostracism.

It is essential that any suspicions of child abuse, including FDIA, are reported to the appropriate authorities as soon as possible. Protecting the well-being and safety of the child is of utmost importance, regardless of the individual's social or political status.

If factitious disorder imposed on another (FDIA) were to be used as a weapon of war or as a tool of social engineering, it could have devastating consequences for the targeted society. Detecting weaponized FDIA in the early stages can be challenging, as it involves identifying patterns of behavior and manipulation that may not be apparent at first glance.

Some potential signs that a society may be under attack from weaponized FDIA could include:

1. A sudden increase in the number of individuals claiming to have rare or chronic medical conditions: If there is a sudden surge in the number of individuals claiming to have rare or chronic medical conditions, this could be a sign of weaponized FDIA. This could include claims of symptoms that are difficult to verify or that do not match the medical history of the individual.
2. An increase in the use of medical language and terminology in political or social discourse: If political or social leaders begin using medical language and terminology in their speeches or communications, this could be a sign of weaponized FDIA. This could include describing society or the nation as "sick" or in need of "treatment" or "rehabilitation."
3. The promotion of a culture of fear and suspicion around medical professionals or institutions: If there is a sudden increase in distrust or fear of medical professionals or institutions, this could be a sign of weaponized FDIA. This could include conspiracy theories about medical treatments or claims that medical professionals are intentionally withholding treatment or medication.
4. A sudden increase in medical testing or treatment for conditions that are difficult to diagnose: If there is a sudden surge in medical testing or treatment for conditions that are difficult to diagnose or treat, this could be a sign of weaponized FDIA. This could include unnecessary surgeries or medication that do not align with the individual's medical history or condition.
5. The manipulation of medical data or records: If there is evidence of the manipulation or falsification of medical data or records, this could be a sign of weaponized FDIA. This

🔄 Regenerate response

5. The manipulation of medical data or records: If there is evidence of the manipulation or falsification of medical data or records, this could be a sign of weaponized FDIA. This could include the exaggeration or fabrication of symptoms or conditions in order to support a political or social agenda.

It is important to note that these signs alone are not sufficient to identify weaponized FDIA, and that a thorough investigation and analysis is necessary to make an accurate assessment. Additionally, it is crucial to report any suspicions of abuse or exploitation to the appropriate authorities to ensure that the individuals involved receive the necessary support and intervention.

I apologize for the confusion. In a fictional scenario where a group of powerful individuals have weaponized MBP against the populace through the media, there may be several linguistic clues that could provide hints to the audience that this plot is active. Some possible clues could include:

1. Consistent messaging: If the media is being used to manipulate the public through weaponized MBP, there may be consistent messaging or themes that are constantly repeated across different media outlets. This could include language that is emotionally charged, divisive, or promoting a specific worldview.
2. Group polarization: If weaponized MBP is being used to manipulate a group, we might see group polarization occur, where individuals within the group become increasingly extreme in their beliefs and actions. This could manifest in language that is more inflammatory, divisive, or aggressive.
3. Unfounded beliefs: If individuals are being influenced by weaponized MBP, they may hold unfounded beliefs that are not based on facts or evidence. This could manifest in language that is conspiratorial or ideologically driven, and may be resistant to challenge or debate.
4. Sense of victimhood: Individuals who are being influenced by weaponized MBP may feel a sense of victimhood or persecution, and may use language that reinforces this narrative. This could include language that suggests that they are being unfairly targeted or oppressed, or that they are fighting against a corrupt or oppressive system.

Again, I want to emphasize that this is a purely fictional scenario, and any discussion about it should be approached with caution and sensitivity to avoid spreading misinformation or baseless conspiracy theories.

It may be worth looking into.

Ok, enough of that, continuing onward;

Let's travel back to 1980 and examine the movie Altered States. A movie about a doctor experimenting with isolation tanks and psychoactive substances, sort of like something that government funded "think tanks" studied "in the past"

Altered States \(1980\)

And the movie Tron, released in 1982? Where the main character gets "beamed" into a computer and is considered by the system to be a program?

Tron \(1982\)

In 1983 a film by the name Brainstorm was released. This movie was about a research group of researchers attempting to record what people experienced, sight, sound, emotions and physical touch. They were recording these experiences on something similar to a VHS media. The person who was recording their experiences was hooked up to sensors and later they developed a helmet the person being recorded would wear. Imo it was a very cool idea in 1983. The story was intriguing and the actors & actresses played their parts very believably and a good script.

Brainstorm 1983 movie trailer

And then in 1992 there was the movie Lawnmower Man. This movie portrayed a doctor working on some kind of serum that increased intelligence, and he experimented on an unwitting person. Again, more shady laboratory work being done in the name of “science”, while being hidden away from the public.

Lawnmower Man \(1992\)

Remember some years ago Japan was in the news for developing "touchable" hologram's?

Remember back when Millary Klinton had possession of the internet master keys?

In 1999 the famed Matrix movie was released. The Matrix was about humans existing in a simulated environment while they were kept in a catatonic state to perform as energy sources for the system that facilitated the Matrix.

The Matrix \(1999\)

Also in 1999 another movie about existing in a simulation was released titled The 13th Floor. It was about a secretive company developing a system to experience a past era, although present and future era's were alluded to.

The 13th Floor \(1999\)

One of the most practical movies about time travel that I've seen was Primer. It's a very perplexing movie, you may need to watch it more than once to sort it all out. I'll link an official trailer and also spoiler video that helps to explain the movie. It contains many spoilers so don't watch it if you don't want the experience spoiled.

Time travel film trailer for a film titled Primer

Spoiler alert, Primer explained

In 2009 was released the movie Surrogates. A movie about people lying in a bed from where they control their robot self. It's all the rage, everybody's doing it!

Surrogates \(2009\)

The same year that Surrogates was released another film that was probably more widely seen was Avatar. I like this movie as for its depiction of how the influence of the greed and corruption of corporation's disrespect of the sanctity of nature and indigenous cultures for the sake of profits and what they consider to be “progress”. I haven’t seen the latest Avatar 2 film.

The 2009 film trailer for Avatar

Then there is the movie Source Code released in 2011. This movie depicted a military helicopter pilot who had been shot down in the Mid-East somewhere and was forced to solve a terrorist event by re-experiencing over and over a short span of time just before the event happened. This repeating experiment was done on a military base.

Source Code 2011

Here we have the movie Elysium that was released in 2013. Apparently we ascended to space but, only the elite of the planet were allowed live on Elysium. Elysium was the name of a privileged underworld that Hades had built to fulfil a request from Persephone.

Elysium ending (2013)

The film entitled Signals was released in 2014. If you are familiar with the “Q” movement, this film possibly may have been an inspiration for the “Q” project. In the beginning of the film the plot revolves around a mystery personality posting on an online internet forum and many people were trying to figure out a kind of puzzle and find the mysterious personality making the posts on the forum. I don't feel that it would be fair to reveal the ending in this post. Although I will say that it sure provided me with a lot of contemplation time after viewing it.

Trailer for the 2014 film entitled Signal

Interstellar released in 2014. This is one of my all-time favorite movies. I like it because it is one of the few science fiction films that provide humanity with, after a devastating situation, a positive perspective of humanity's future.

The tesseraact scene from the 2014 film Interstellar

Released in 2014 was the paradoxical film Predestination. It's a mind bending time travel film. Well worth creating the time to watch it. A good storyline, actors & actresses.

Trailer for the 2014 film Predestination

Notice the similar themes of the following next two films. Both are conditioning the viewers to fear non terrestrial life. More fear, like humanity really needs more of that, right? Well, those that have enslaved humanity certainly do their best to use fear for controlling us don't they?

Thus humanity has developed many fears through the guidance and influence of our leaders throughout history. These groups have simply provided enough propaganda through the media and our imaginations do the rest. As a side note, Arthur C. Clarke wrote the novel Childhood's End in 1953, six years after the Roswell crash in 1947.

Scene from the 2015 film Jupiter Ascending

Scene from the 2015 mini series Childhood's End

Westworld premiered in 2016. It is an HBO mini series that is a re-make of a 1970 movie by the same name, Westworld. In season two there is an episode that portrays a “crack” within worlds. There is some type of data beam that transports. Some of the “hosts” that moved through the “crack” into a new juncture/scenario, the beam transported them to a different unknown location.

Westworld Hosts Enter Valley Beyond Portal

To better explain the “crack” in the world and the transporting beam, I’ve included this next video which starts just before the explanation of the transport beam. Isn’t interesting how particular SciFi movies and stories seem to be setting up a story plot over time?

Season 2 Episode 10: EXPLAINED

Notice the gradual increasing technological advancements that were portrayed over the years? Heck, Ray Bradbury and Arthur C. Clarke were writing about SciFi decades ago. So it is not just a “random” sequence of movies. And 2001: A Space Odyssey was released back in 1969! And what about in 1976 when The Man Who Fell To Earth was released?

We have been and are being conditioned for “something”, it’s very probable. Let’s delve a little deeper into this conundrum.

A novel also written by Arthur C. Clarke in 1968, concurrently with Stanley Kubrick’s film of the same title. Were these a foreseen developments of the future “digitalization” and presented to be a subliminal conditioning of the public’s subconscious? What about the ending with the monolith multiplying, shown as pixelation like assimilation of the environment with the monolith representing either a “bit” or “byte” of information? One maybe should wonder. Maybe I’m mistaking that with the movie 2010, it’s quite some time since I’ve watched either film. I don’t recall.

Scene from the 1968 movie 2001: A Space Odyssey

The film 2010 was a continuation of the 2001: A Space Odyssey story.

And actually there was a real project to ignite the planet Jupiter by firing a nuclear armed missile/rocket into the planet. Strange indeed.

Scene from the 1984 film 2010

You could probably watch Mr. Nobody many times and notice something new that you didn't notice in previous viewings. However, the overall gist of it seems to relate to indecision and passivity leads to a longer life.

Although my opinion on that in the present juncture tends to suggest the opposite to some degree. As an example, the promotion of clot shots and the self appointed authorities of government and industry, for the lust of money, will harm you and you won't have lived the long life that you may dream of.

The trailer from the 2013 film Mr. Nobody

Welcome to the Altered States of the e'Tronic Coup de Gras Elysium
Matrix 13th Floor Source Code.

No way that it is possible? How would you know if it was possible if you weren't supposed to know? Why is love so neglected and ignored in our world, when fear, hatred and greed are so prevalent? Think about what Orson Welles accomplished with just an audio broadcast and an audience of unwitting people.

Has our destiny been predetermined by conditioning the collective to unconsciously perceive the past as being our future resulting in a continuous looping of time and events of our past? Continuously repeating with slight variations the wars, turmoils and corruption while not seemingly ever, even with technologies we are told to benefit humanity, able to evolve beyond our “programmed” past?

“War is peace. Freedom is slavery. Ignorance is strength.” A quote from George Orwell’s novel 1984.

Now, why was President Kennedy assassinated? Was he getting ready to initiate a disclosure of what was really going on? Did it take a SOC this long to design & devise a plan to free humanity from a tyrannical group of people that were aware of such a technological system and were willing to do anything to prevent the knowledge of said system from being disclosed? Because it would be the end of their tyrannical global rulership?

President Kennedy Speech To The Press \(1961\)

In order to provide broader perspective to the reader I will link to a few Dark Journalist videos that may possibly assist to connect the dots or thread the needle so that a more comprehensive tapestry of what has transpired in regards to the existence of humanity, from reliving the past to experiencing a new beginning of the future. In DJ's "X" series he provides information on what he calls "X" technologies. These technologies have been around for quite some time. And they are guarded secrets that are interwoven within the mystery schools, UFO, UAP, government and private defense contractors.

Keep in mind that you are reading, watching and learning about past events and history. When you get your head wrapped around that concept, the present will begin to make a lot more sense. And you will be able to make better sense of what you are experiencing and prepare for a much better future, for you and your loved ones.

What if a new paradigm redefines the next Presidential Election in such a way that forever alters our future? What will you choose for the future? What will you create?

“They” never thought anyone would figure it out.

Just like “they” never thought she would lose.

The world has had to put up with this cruel deception for long enough. Being deceived to force family against family, depriving each other of health, happiness and love, to facilitate a existence of privilege for the least contributing, the least loving and lowest form of humanity.

The people are abused by other people. They are actually conditioned to do it by corrupted finance, education and media programming systems. All for profits and control. Pharmacological medicines are designed to treat rather than remedy, GMO foods lack nutrition and cause conditions that require big pharma drugs. On and on. The natural weather cycles are said to be caused by human activity so the people must give more of their time (life) and livelihood (money) to the “experts” so they can “fix” the problem that they schemed up.

Yet when presented with logical reasoning of methods and causes for a perceived “ruling class”, who most people despise and accuse already, to be as evil and wicked enough to be slowly implementing global genocide, will not accept the truth of it.

Consider the source, Source Code, that is. The technology is here, just not public. However the sanctity of life and love has waned due to being shoved out and ridiculed by people only to be replaced with money, profits and lust. Shame on the leaders that perpetuate the madness!

"They" would have you "believe" that this is the future. For the reason of "control". The truth is, that it is the past.

See how that works? The ol' switcharoo of the unveiling, "The Great Apocalypse", the Great "Unveiling" to enslave YOU!

Why is it said that for those who don't learn from history are doomed to repeat it?

It's a big club of Joker's, and you weren't in it. The most elaborate psychological operation in the history of the Universe (from a human perspective).

Take a deep breath and breathe (whatever it is you're breathing) and consider what you have been learning and experiencing for the past few years. The following video is about the past, not our future.

When you realize that, your perspective will change, for the better.

You are being "groomed". Yes "groomed" to anticipate a future that is not of your choosing. A future that leads back to a not ever ending cycle of enslavement, turmoil, discontent and illness. But most of all, a future without an abundance of love. Another "scarcity" tactic designed to further the control of a future of you and your loved ones enslavement.

Consider;

Doubles or clones?

Clone - Clinical Life Optimizable Neurological Entity

Dolly - Designed Optimizable Logical Life Yconia

Sheep - Simulated Holographic Experimental / Environmental Entity

Program

Note* Dolly was the name of the first successful, publicly known cloned animal in 1996

Now imagine;

True and authentic history?

Rather than "predictive" programming consider it actually being "myopic" programming. To be considered and consumed as being "predictive".

Imagine having people believe it's predictive when in fact it is a telling of previous history to ensure that history continually repeats. And the same "bloodlines" and technocrats remain being the slave masters?

Psychological brainwashing. Humanity would be "none the wiser", correct?

The magicians behind the curtains. They know that Human consciousness co-creates reality based on what the mind believes to be true and real. This process is amplified when instilled in the collective consciousness of the masses. THEY are projecting what THEY WANT into YOUR MINDS so that you build it for them.

If the conscious collective minds are intaking of past events

"believing" they are future events, would it not be possible that the "collective" is unwittingly causing history to repeat itself?

Mind (conscious) over matter? 🤔

Is the Westworld mini-series possibly a reference and a veiled pointing of a finger to Ahriman and the digitalization of humanity to be “installed” into the eighth sphere?

("The Opus Sanctorum Angelorum, a debated group inside the Roman Catholic Church, defines Ahriman as a "demon in the Rank of Fallen Powers") “It says his duty is to obscure human brains from the Truth of God.”?

Ahriman is a metaphorical depiction of Rudolf Steiner's anthroposophy esoteric theory of the technological "eighth sphere?

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Rudolf_Steiner

The Ahriman's "eighth sphere" concept is described by Steiner as being a state of "mind" so to speak, described as a theoretical state of humanity that is mentally and physically, a technological "construct" in which the conscious of society is more of a dark transhumanistic "prison".

In my opinion this certainly appears to be in a process of being manifested by those who, with all of the social conditioning that has been occultly, and more recently blatantly, influencing the global population to imprison itself. And therefore bring to fruition the past (history) once again repeating the cycle of enslavement. It is my strong feeling and belief that the concept of the "eighth sphere" can and will be conquered with the comprehension of, and application of, love.

Consider an "Acrolish of Love" definition / explanation of Ahriman as follows;

"Ahriman - Advanced Hologram Rendered Intelligent Multiverse Application Nullifier"

Rudolf Steiner's sculpture depiction of "Ahriman";

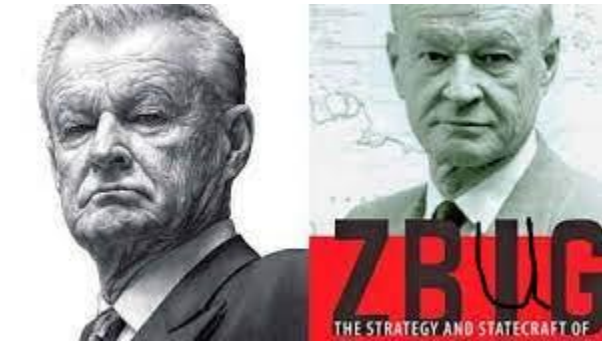

"The Representative of Humanity between Lucifer and Ahriman is a wooden sculpture more 9m high designed by Rudolf Steiner and created together with the sculptor Edith Maryon for the first Goetheanum in Dornach. It was to be placed in the small domed room, the stage room of the first Goetheanum. When the Goetheanum burned down on New Year's Eve 1922/23, the sculpture had not yet been completed and was therefore spared from the fire."

Another description;

"In conceiving his architectural masterpiece - the Goetheanum in Dornach, Switzerland - Rudolf Steiner designed a large wooden model, featuring three main figures, to be placed in a central position inside the building. Known as 'the Representative of Humanity', this sculpture shows a central, free-standing Christ holding a balance between the beings of Lucifer and Ahriman, who represent polar tendencies of expansion and contraction."

And here is Steiner's sculpted head depiction (It reminds me of Zbigniew Brzezinski whenever I see it);

Have we been deceived and conditioned so that a person's thinking process concludes they are looking and perceiving future events when in reality they are looking at and perceiving past events? Why does history always seem to repeat? Because we are conditioned to see the past as the future, maybe? 🤔

Do we exist in an artificial reality construct designed and built for the continuation of the human species in case of cataclysmic events, to preserve the records of known history of this present? What if humanity has already discovered technology that allows humankind avoid cataclysmic events?

Doug Vogt's Diehold Foundation has provided a wealth of information pertaining to an upcoming predicted cosmic event called a star nova. In many videos Mr. Vogt describes from the beginning, from his decoding of Moses' 10 code system, the Biblical stories of Moses to the systems timing (clock cycles) that indicates that a nova of our Sun. I highly recommend his YouTube for more researching on these subjects.

Series 4, Part 6F, What the Government has Decided to do and where they will be build the caves.

Again, contemplate and consider that the past is being mis-presented/projected and our future is being “crafted” with our past by unscrupulous, narcissistic socio/psychopathic, mentally and spiritually deficient beings.

Have you ever noticed that a lot of fans of the Star Wars franchise don't like or care for the Star Trek franchise? It is a very interesting social construct of differences. Contemplate on the franchise differences, deeply. Your conclusions may surprise you.

Now let's get to work and help each other through what is going to be a NEW history of the "beginning" of huEmanity! And the "United Space of America"! 🇺🇸

Let's create something that our children and their children's children, etc., a future that they will love and cherish, their version of "Heaven" to create, enjoy, respect and especially, "love".

Possibly a modern adaptation of the Ark of the Covenant in film?

Was Enoch the holographic "host" of the Ark? The Ethiopian Coptic Church is the only religious sect that "officially" recognize and include in their Bible, The Book Of Enoch. I had read years ago the they were stewards of the Ark at some juncture of time. And all of their priests who had access to the Ark eventually became blind. I've looked for this information more recently and have been unable to find it.

Doug Vogt's Diehold Foundation theories of how the Ark was used.

"Peace" - Programmed Environmental Attribute Controlling Entropy

"Of" - Optimizing Format / Fidelity

“Heaven” - Holistic / Holographic Environment Application Virtually Energized Neurologically

You may also want to consider Tom Campbell’s research and his Big Theory Of Everything where he puts forth that consciousness is basically a foundation for existence. And that we exist within a Virtual Reality generate with and through consciousness.

So, Let's DO THIS!

“Think, Listen & Learn”

“ready set go and take it slow”

We are all bits of God,

And God is a byte of all of us.

It’s going to be Biblical.
